

MAN Group: MAN Roland wins the contract for a large project in Great Britain

Munich, Oct 12, 2004

The Augsburg-based Web Offset Press Division of MAN Roland Druckmaschinen AG, Offenbach, a member of the MAN Group, has been awarded the contract from News International Supply Company Limited, London for a large project with a value in the medium EUR three-digit million region. The project covers the delivery of 22 COLORMAN XXL newspaper presslines including accessories which are to be installed over the next four years.

News International Supply Company Limited, London is a member of The News Corporation Limited, Australia, which belongs to the Murdoch Group.

The MAN Roland presslines are part of a comprehensive investment project in Great Britain that will see ultramodern printing systems replacing the existing equipment. The newspaper titles to be produced on the new COLORMAN lines include "The Times", "The Sunday Times", "The Sun" and "News of the World".

Gerd Finkbeiner, CEO of the MAN Roland Group, is delighted about gaining this contract: "This project represents a landmark development in terms of economy and quality for the successful future of the printed newspaper."
